1.0 INTRODUCTION

1.1. Preamble

In May 2001, Egerton University Council discussed and approved a policy providing guidance on Self Sponsored Programmes (SSP). The items covered by the policy included: An SSP Board of Directors, Financial Management of SSP, Admission and Registration of students and Assignment of courses to teaching staff.

SSP programmes have increased since 2001 where a number of programmes now admit SSP students and are integrated into the regular JAB programmes. In certain programmes there are so many options where small classes may arise due to the options. Furthermore, the rate paid to part time lecturers is low (Kes 600 - 650 per hour) compared to that paid to SSP (upto Kes 2000 per hour). Therefore, there is need to review the payment to part timers and the management of SSP programmes in the University to improve on the efficiency of programmes.

1.2 Objectives of the Self Sponsored Programmes

The objectives of the Self Sponsored Programmes are:-

- (a) Support the vision and mission of the University.
- (b) Give Kenyans more opportunity of higher education at a lower cost compared to joining (| private Universities or going abroad.
- (c) Generate income for the University.
- (d) Provide extra to sort staff.

- (e) Motivate University staff to improve the quality of instruction.
- (f) Improve teaching facilities
- (g) Raise funds to help needy students and provide other benefits to regular students.

2.0 Programmes

2.1 Types of Programmes

- (a) All regular programmes in the University can be mounted as Self-Sponsored: Programmes.
- (b) Faculties are at liberty to develop client-driven programmes that are in high demand.

2.2 Location of programmes

The Self-Sponsored Programme will be located in Njoro, Nakuru Town and Nairobi City Campuses. Other teaching centres as approved by the Senate may also offer SSP programmes. SSP may also be offered through Open and Distance learning modes of delivery.

2.3 Admission Requirements

All students applying for Self-Sponsored diploma or Degree Programme must meet the minimum admission criteria as set out by senate for each programme.

2.4 Relationship with Regular Programmes

Programmes offered to regular students will also be available where facilities allow. All Degree/Diploma programmes may be mounted during the day and/or in the evening. The following programmes shall be offered.

- a) Integrated programmes (where the regular and SSP students learn together).
- b) Programmes targeting the work based students, which are expected to run at times convenient to these clients.
- c) Programmes targeting school leavers.
- d) Evening programmes will run from 5.30 p.m. to 8.30 p.m. from Mondays to Fridays and from 8.30 a.m. to 4.30 p.m. on Saturdays.

2.5 Fee Payment

The fees structure payable by all students of Egerton is as approved by the Council from time to time. The current fees are shown in annex I

2.6 General Principles for Part timers

The following principles shall apply;

2.6.1 Full time staff

- (a) Lecturers who teach regular programmes shall be eligible to teach self sponsored-Programmes.
- (b) For integrated programmes Lecturers can only be remunerated for any extra hours taught beyond the normal load. A minimum number of students in a class for both Arts and Science courses should be 25.

2.6.2 Part time staff - Internal and External Lecturer

- (a) Part-time lecturers shall be paid a credit factor hourly rate of Kes. 1,600.00 (one thousand

- (f) Payments to various providers shall depend on;
 - (I) The amount of fees collected,
 - (ii) The number of students admitted per programme,
 - (iii) The number of hours taught.

Payments of Lecturers shall be made once only at the end of the Semester after the examination grades have been submitted.

2.6.3 Hire of External Lecturers

In unique special cases, where there is a course that must be taught but the only specialized lecturer is available in another university, then a term contract for that particular course and semester may be considered subject to the approval of the Vice-Chancellor. The course should have the minimum number of students as prescribed by senate and the

(b) Administrative Cost: 10% of the income

This will be distributed as follows:-

The University will accumulate the 10% of tuition received and an annual payment will be made to all staff based on income received.

(c) Contribution towards the University

The balance on the tuition from Bridging courses of 55% will go towards the University budget. The department however maythe

This Policy will be implemented with effect from January 2012 and will be reviewed after every two years
